

K-LOVE is the only radio station that I listen to. Many people in the local community choose K-LOVE as their radio station because it is a positive and family oriented station. The fact that listeners all over the country can be listening to the same station at the same time is very important.